Thank You for Serving Grieving Parents

To those who serve families grieving the loss of a baby:

Thank you for caring for families who have lost a baby during pregnancy or shortly after birth. We believe that dealing with infant losses can be some of the most difficult work that you do. Families truly appreciate those who acknowledge their loss and provide a dignified burial for their child.

Proper burial is the only gift that parents will be able to give their child. Consequently, families want their baby's burial to be special. We appreciate all you do to make this possible. We are happy to provide you with a wide selection of caskets and urns for grieving families.

With the assistance of Heaven's Gain Ministries, please offer our burial choices to these families. We would be honored if you would consider our caskets and urns for babies who leave too soon. To assist you in selecting the correct size casket, a size chart is available on the back cover of this catalog.

Order Processing:

Orders are sent out the same business day if placed by noon EST. We prefer orders be placed through our website to allow you to choose the correct type of shipping based on the time it is needed. Only express orders are guaranteed to arrive by a specific day. If you will be placing an order after noon EST but you would prefer it to go out the same day, please call us to see if that is a possibility. Should you have any questions, we are available by phone at (513) 888-4200 or email at heavensgain.staff@gmail.com.

Shipping:

We currently ship via FedEx and US Postal Service. While ordering through our website, you choose your preferred service. FedEx Express or USPS Express have guaranteed delivery dates. FedEx Ground and USPS Priority Mail have expected delivery dates, but they are not guaranteed. Next day shipping is available but may be three to four times as expensive as ground shipping. Save on shipping by ordering more than one casket and/or urn to have on hand so you don't need to use express shipping. The shipping page on our website has more details.

Advocates for Parents of Perinatal Loss (APPL)

Before Delivery

APPL advocates will prepare parents for the birth of their baby once it is determined there is no heartbeat and before they enter the hospital. Advocates meet with parents to alleviate anxiety and fears of the unknown. By receiving non-medical intervention, parents become empowered, ready to make the most of the short time with their child. Our trained advocates will work with the parents to create a birth plan. They will offer options that allow parents to make educated decisions to choose what memories and mementos they wish to create with their child.

During Delivery

APPLs avail themselves for questions during delivery via phone or in person. They can advocate for their clients and help to make sure the birth plan is understood and fulfilled as closely as possible.

After Delivery

Advocates are fully knowledgeable to assist parents with their disposition choices: burial or cremation. They can assist in the planning of a service or funeral. Advocates will understand they cannot take away the pain of losing a child, but they can help parents avoid additional trauma that happens if they are not prepared. There is no time limit on grief. Even well after delivery, advocates are trained to offer peer support to couples and individuals.

For more information on how to become a Certified Advocate for Parents of Perinatal Loss (APPL), go to our website <https://heavensgain.org/appl/>

Preserving Babies Too Small to Embalm

Saline Bath Preservation Information

At Heaven's Gain Ministries, we strongly recommend the Saline Bath Preservation Technique for the deceased baby. This requires a vessel.

The handling and burial of a miscarried or stillborn baby often brings with it some special challenges. The baby's skeletal system is not fully developed, and so the baby may not retain his/her natural form after birth. The baby's body is very fragile, and the skin may be sticky to the touch.

If still in the womb, the baby would be peacefully floating in his/her own amniotic fluid. Our vessels allow the baby to be suspended in water as nature intended at this stage of life, as opposed to being completely exposed to dehydration. The use of the vessel filled with saline water gives the body of the baby a womb-like environment.

We recommend a 0.9% saline solution or 0.9% contact lens solution, to "preserve" the baby, thereby slowing down the deterioration process. By placing your baby in one of our vessels, it allows you to keep the fragile baby's body safe and to view the baby. When not viewing the baby, please keep the baby in the vessel in the refrigerator. These techniques can be used for a few days until burial.

Often times, a miscarried or early stillborn baby does not look exactly as expected or as seen in baby development pictures. When placed in a vessel with 0.9% saline water, the baby usually returns to his/her natural state for that stage in pregnancy. This change in appearance allows other children and family members to view the baby while keeping the baby's body safe.

The clear vessel provides a wonderful opportunity to take beautiful pictures. Wrapping the bottle with a blanket allows family members to cuddle and rock the baby without worrying about skin breakdown. Even if the family prefers to not see the baby in the vessel, preserving the baby in the vessel will help preserve them until the viewing.

The Funeral Director's page on our website www.heavensgain.org includes a video about the saline bath technique.

Miscarriage Kits

This miscarriage kit is designed to be used at home after no heartbeat has been detected and the mother begins the delivery process. Its purpose is to measure blood loss, preserve the baby, and to locate the placenta.

The miscarriage kit includes:

- 1 collection pan to measure blood loss
- 1 chart to record measurements of blood loss
- 1 collapsible colander to be placed in the collection pan to retain the baby, placenta, and blood clots
- 1 squirt bottle to rinse and discern the colander contents
- 1 baby development card with pictures and directions on saline bath preservation technique on the reverse side
- 1 vessel to place the baby (sizes vary based on gestation of the baby)
- 1 bag for the placenta to refrigerate until decisions are made about any testing
- 3 pairs of gloves

A good practice is to order these in bulk to have on hand.

You can find more information on ordering these on our website: <https://heavensgain.org/miscarriage-kit/> or scan this QR Code.

A video describing the use of this miscarriage kit is available on our website.
